

"WHAT WOULD THEY HAVE ME CUT?
WHAT WOULD THEY HAVE ME LEAVE OUT?"

BUDGET

HOUSE REPUBLICANS

REP. JASON SMITH, REPUBLICAN LEADER

When asked to defend a massive spending agenda, President Biden said:

“What would they have me cut? What would they have me leave out?”

We are glad you asked, Mr. President.

Cue the Music

The state of Montana has handed out $754,000 in grants from the American Rescue Plan to artists to create everything from a “state-themed [jazz] album” to ceramic pots for a photo shoot – all part of the \$135 million pot Democrats gave to the National Endowment for the Arts in a bill supposedly about fighting COVID-19.

One of the grantees stated that her musical composition was written “in light of all the more dramatic, unpredictable, bigger change we’ve all been going through.”

Ironic, because the dramatic and bigger changes Americans have been going through since Democrats passed their $2 trillion American Rescue Plan is the worst inflation crisis in 40 years, Help Wanted signs in store fronts, and a growing trail of waste, fraud, and abuse of their tax dollars.

Stay tuned for more.
